

Andrea Barcio

Human Resources, Process Governance & Procurement

Andrea Barcio is Head of Human Resources at CA Auto Bank, remaining in the role he has held at FCA Bank since May 2019. In July 2024, he took on responsibility for the Process Governance department. Furthermore, in february 2025, Andrea is appointed Outsourcing Officer, taking on the responsibility of the Procurement department.

He started his career as a consultant. In 1993, he was a Training Specialist with ISVOR. In 1997, he joined Accenture, where he was a Senior Consultant until 2000, when he moved to the Human Resources/Organisation department at FGA until 2003.

After two different positions in Human Resources, in the International Development and Central Staff area, in 2005 he became FGA's Head of Recruitment until 2007, when he became Head of Human Resources for Alfa Romeo, Lancia and Abarth Brand Marketing Communication and Product Concept.

In 2010, he became FGA Human Resources Business Partner for the Central Functions, Quality and Supply Chain, a position he held until 2014.

Between 2012 and 2016, he served as Human Resources Business Partner for Global Finance & ICT for FGA. As HRBP in EMEA, he also collaborated with the Finance, Business Development and Turkey areas.

In October 2016, he was appointed Head of hHuman Resources at the FCA Bank and Leasys Business Unit, Italy, where he remained until April 2019.

He graduated from liceo classico high school, holds a postgraduate degree in Sociology and obtained a Master's in Human Resources.
