

Luca Caffaro

CA Auto Bank Group CFO

Luca Caffaro is Group Chief Financial Officer of CA Auto Bank, confirming the same position he has held at FCA Bank since February 2022.

He started his professional career as an auditor with Deloitte Italia (formerly Arthur Andersen) in 1999, before joining Fiat Group Automobiles Financial Services in 2004.

In 2006, he became part of the FCA Bank Group, where he has held positions of increasing responsibility in Italy and abroad in the area of Financial Services and Mobility.

After a three-year stint as Controller of the FCA Bank Group, from 2015 to 2018 he took on the role of CFO of Leasys SpA, a Group company active in the long-term rental sector.

In 2019 he was transferred to Germany as CFO of Ferrari Financial Services, responsible for the Swiss, German and UK markets.

Eventually, he moved to France as Country Manager and Managing Director of FCA Capital France, before returning to Italy to take up his current position.

Luca Caffaro was born in Turin in 1975. He holds a degree in Economics and Business from the University of Turin and attended an MBA - Master CFO at the University of Turin.
